CONDOLENCE

All India Road Transport Workers' Federation deeply mourns the death of Comrade Shyamal Chakraborty, the President of the Federation. Right from his student days he was associated with the Left Ideology. He served as the Leader of the SFI at national level. He was the former Minister of West Bengal Government during the tenure of former Chief Minister Jyothi Basu.

He served as the Transport Minister, Government of West Bengal. He was associated with the Transport movement for more than three decades. He was the National Secretary of CITU for a long time. He is a man of love and affection. His death is a great loss to the Working-Class movement and particularly the Transport sector. All India Road Transport Workers' Federation pays respectful homage to comrade Shyamal Chakraborty.
